

Year 5 Science photos

Mixing Materials

The children in Year 5 have been learning about dissolving, evaporation and filtering.

They made predictions about which materials would dissolve in water to make a solution.

The children also tested out different methods of separating mixtures such as sieving and using filter paper and a funnel.

