

We have learnt about the stages of the human life and we ordered them from birth to old age. We thought about how life changes over the years.

2R thought about the questions they have on plants. We came up with so many that we are now going to spend the half term investigating as many as we can!

Year 2 have explored many different type of seeds. We compared them to see the differences and similarities. Can you recognise any of these seeds?